

Manresa Memos

Issue 66 | Dec. 2024-Jan. 2025

Our Mission is to help men and women grow spiritually through prayer, reflection, guidance and teaching according to the Ignatian tradition.

A message from the Executive Director

Sr. Linda Sevcik, SM

Dear Friends of Manresa,

Thank you very much to those who have prayed for Manresa during our Mission Examen process, especially at the end of October. While we are awaiting the written report from the Midwest Province, we are grateful to the colleagues from other places who formed the visiting team, and to all at Manresa who participated in any way. It reminded us that we all have an important role in making Manresa what it is, from our Jesuits to the many others who are involved at all levels. Thank you for helping form this mission-oriented community.

As we transition to the season of Advent, perhaps this quote may inspire how we live it:

The season of Advent means there is something on the horizon the likes of which we have never seen before... What is possible is to not see it, to miss it, to turn just as it brushes past you. And you begin to grasp what it was you missed, like Moses in the cleft of the rock, watching God's [back] fade in the distance. So stay. Sit. Linger. Tarry. Ponder. Wait. Behold. Wonder. There will be time enough for running. For rushing. For worrying. For pushing. For now, stay. Wait. Something is on the horizon.

– Jan L. Richardson, Night Visions: Searching the Shadows of Advent and Christmas

Living at least part of each day by these words presents a challenge. Do you feel, as I do, called to accept it? If so, join me in making Richardson's message a part of your daily prayer during the beautiful season of Advent.

May your days be blessed!

Sr. Linda Sevcik, SM
Executive Director

Journaling as a Prayer Practice

These three sessions offer practical ways of developing and using a prayer journal as an integral part of your prayer practice. Whether you are already journaling or new to the idea, each session offers practice exercises for spiritual journaling as a regular part of your prayer time. No writing skills are necessary, just an openness to pay close attention to your review of prayer and then to capture your response for further deepening your relationship with God. This program invites you to discover ways to journal best suited to your needs and how spiritual journaling can deepen your listening to the personal experience of God at work in your daily life.

“Come, have breakfast” (John 21:12) These three simple words followed by generous action open a portal into an ecological image of the living God Who is active with cordial hospitality toward all creatures, nurturing their lives, desiring that all should be fed.

Join us for this book study of Come, Have Breakfast, the latest work of prize-winning theologian Elizabeth Johnson, which views the beauty and threatened state of planet Earth through the lens of Scripture.

Each luminous meditation offers a snapshot of one aspect of the Holy Mystery Who creates, indwells, redeems, vivifies and sanctifies the whole world. Together, they offer a panoramic view of the living God Who loves the earth, accompanies all its creatures in their living and their dying and moves us to care for our uncommon common home.

For the first session, read, reflect and jot notes on the Introduction. Use this method for the first five sections, focusing your reflection on the author’s last paragraph in each.

Facilitator: Rosemary Insley

Day of Reflection: Facets of Grief

You are asked to register for each afternoon separately.

Compassion: The New Lenten Practice

Lent is the springtime of the Church, a season that mirrors the new life emerging in the natural world. Lent rouses us to “repent and believe the good news.” Rather than giving up chocolate or coffee this year, try cultivating compassion as a spiritual practice.

Compassion is essential to human survival. It calls us to treat all others—in the family, workplace and beyond—as we wish to be treated ourselves. Planting the seeds of compassion, learning to be self-compassionate and widening the circle of compassion to include all beings may be more rigorous than you think.

This three-part, online series is inspired by well-known author Joyce Rupp’s Boundless Compassion: Creating a Way of Life. Led by certified Boundless Compassion facilitators, we’ll explore Rupp’s insights and enter into quiet reflection, small group break-out sessions and communal prayer. Come, “grow in the kind of love that motivated Jesus to be a compassionate presence.”

Praying with Art: James Tissot's Life of Christ - Part II

Tuesdays, 7:00–8:30 PM

Jan. 28 | Feb. 11, 25 | Mar. 11, 25 | Apr. 8, 22

During our second semester, we will continue to look at and pray about the life of Christ as painted by the French artist James Tissot (1836–1902). After a powerful religious experience in 1885, Tissot abandoned the lifestyle and art genres that had until that moment made him respectively notorious and famous. He dedicated the rest of his life to researching and reproducing Christ's life as it would have looked in the Holy Land of His day. We will begin with the closing events of Jesus' public life and then look at His passion and death during Lent and His resurrection during Easter Week. You may follow the story in The Life of Jesus by Andrea Tornielli but this is not a required text.

Facilitator: Fr. Peter Fennessy, SJ

Volunteer Opportunity

Help us spread the word about Manresa's programs and retreats

Every issue of Memos is sent out via postal service and via email. Memos is also delivered to local parishes by Manresa volunteers to allow those not on our mailing lists to learn about Manresa's programs and retreats. Our volunteers are notified via email when new issues are available for pickup. They simply pickup their stack and deliver the issues to their parish or other local parishes within the week. New issues are published six times a year: January, March, May, July, September and November.

We are currently in need of additional volunteers to do this important work. If you're interested in joining this great group of men and women, please contact Steve Raymond at sraymond@manresa-sj.org.

How do we draw closer to God amidst the challenges of modern life? The ancient prayer practice of lectio divina, enhanced with guidance from St. Ignatius' teachings, can help us discover how God is speaking to us today, in our daily life. We listen deeply to God's Word, we have the opportunity to share what God is saying to us, what we are feeling and experiencing, and we pray for the specific grace we seek. Manresa's Lectio Prayer Group provides a way to grow in our journey to finding God in all things. Consider joining us.

Christian Yoga for body, mind & spirit

Christian Yoga is a form of prayer in which we place ourselves in a position to be present in the moment with God, with a focus on breath. As we move through postures accompanied by meditative quiet and prayer, we find balance, strength and union of our whole self with God. In the end, this brings us to our quiet center to be still with God and to know His peace. Join us for this healthy, healing practice in an atmosphere of prayer and meditation.

MANRESA JESUIT RETREAT HOUSE Advancing Our Mission

You should have received our Annual Appeal letter from Sr. Linda Sevcik, SM and Steve Raymond at the beginning of November along with our latest Advancement newsletter.

In it you will have read about the many ways that Manresa touches the lives of thousands of those who want to nurture their relationship with Jesus. From young students to first- and long-time retreatants to program attendees, we are advancing our Mission to help men and women grow spiritually through prayer, reflection, guidance and teaching according to the Ignatian tradition.

Our Annual Appeal plays a significant role in meeting our

Sunday Afternoon Reflection: Advent

Sunday, Dec. 8, 2024 | 2:00–7:00 PM

Advent is a season of waiting, of being drawn into the spiritual discipline of anticipation. Our spiritual director is Mary, the one in whom we see revealed the patience of God.

As Mary waits for the Messiah, she invites us into a way of life that welcomes the gospel through our own experience of waiting and longing.

The afternoon includes two talks, time for private prayer/devotion, Sunday Mass and a delicious meal to round out the day. Your retreat begins at 2:00 PM; however, you may arrive any time after 1:30 PM for refreshments and fellowship.

Come join us as we prepare for Christmas ... waiting with Mary.
