Scripture Study

A Study of Galatians and Romans

The apostle Paul's letters to the churches in Galatia and Rome share similar themes: reconciliation with God through faith in Jesus Christ alone for Jew and Gentile alike, freedom from observance of the Mosaic law and invitation to love and serve others rather than indulge self-interest. While similar in theme, however, they are very different in tone and scope.

In Galatians, Paul is direct and dramatic in his warning against falling back into legalism, passionately urging the church to resist the false teachers who were compromising the grace of Christ. In Romans, hoping to win the church's trust before his planned visit, he offers a comprehensive, systematic theological treatise in defense of the gospel.

Join us as we unpack these two letters and listen for what God may be saying to us as we serve Him in our everyday lives.
