

Mary Magdalene: The Transforming Journey of a Disciple

A Weekend Retreat for Women

Join us for a weekend retreat that will guide you through the Ignatian spiritual exercises with various meditations on the interior journey of Mary Magdalene, from her existential restlessness, to her encounter with the merciful and unconditional love of Christ, to her call to become the Apostle to the Apostles, and beyond.

Journey with Mary Magdalene as she discovers God's providential hand guiding her toward authentic freedom and love. It is a path to which we are all called, and it invites a continual response to the loving initiatives of the Lord in our lives.

Retreat Director: Jennifer Ristine, CWRC, has been consecrated in the Society of Apostolic Life, Regnum Christi since 1997. During that time she has been engaged in faith and spiritual formation primarily through teaching, writing, conferences, retreats and spiritual direction. She lived and worked in Ancient Magdala, in the Holy Land, which inspired various works on Saint Mary Magdalene, including a work of historical fiction, Becoming Magdalene.
