

The Call That All May Be One

Weekend Retreat for Men and Women

We live in a world with people from various cultures and life experiences that have helped to shape what we think and how we respond to one another. It can be difficult to find common ground amidst increasing division.

And yet throughout the Scriptures, we hear the call to be one. How do we do that when the stakes can seem so high, when interaction with others can leave us feeling frustrated and angry?

Come and reflect on what the Gospel has to say. Engage the challenge of your divisions. Pray with all that arises and discover what can be born out of your experience.

Retreat Facilitators

Rosemary Insley

Paula Dow

Rosemary Insley has Master's degrees in Pastoral Studies and Social Work and is a retired chaplain and bereavement counselor. A spiritual companion since 2004, she guides others in the Spiritual Exercises and in retreats.

Paula Dow completed Manresa's Internship in Ignatian Spirituality in 2005. She facilitates lectio divina and trains others to lead this way of praying with Scripture. She offers both spiritual direction and guidance in the Spiritual Exercises. Paula also enjoys her vocations as wife, mother and grandmother.
